Short Bio

Detoxen are a thrash band from South East London, specialising in a mix of traditional thrash riffs with modern thrash aggression. The band mixes a healthy dose of crunchy breakdowns, blistering fast rager riffs, and soaring leads to build the backbone of their explosive live shows.

Lead by excitable frontman Debs, Detoxen (Joe, Jesse, Ed and Debs) has a tight and driven live show. As Debs summons images of war, disaster, power and plague with a Lemmy-esque tone, the band creates a thunderous cannon fire wall of rhythm driving the charge to the front line of the pit!

Incendiary mosh pits, explosive antics from a deranged frontman, limbs flying everywhere, and numerous chances for audience participation - as well as the odd impromptu guest vocal - make Detoxen shows one not to miss! Just ask the crowd from their packed out set at Bloodstock - the survivors at least!

SEE YOU IN THE PIT!!!
